Profile

I am flexible in my working hours, being able to work evenings and weekends. Experimenting and always looking for improvements on current or old projects, as well as encouraging the team for greater efficiency. I have successfully met deadlines on every project I've worked on. I use a creative approach to problem solving and I am also able to handle multiple tasks on a daily basis.

Experience

■ Freelancer

| December 2022 - Present

I have created and I'm constantly modifying my personal CV website and personal projects in order to challenge myself and my knowledge of JavaScript. The next thing I have in mind is learning new JavaScript libraries and frameworks so I can make my projects more interactive and user-friendliness.

■ Rio Spirits Ltd

Purchasing Manager | January 2017 - Present

Import of raw materials, optimization of the work process, sales, finding new customers, market research for the company "Rio Spirits Ltd."

■ Company

Technical Assistant Intern | October 2016 - January 2017

My work included working with software programs like (SAP, Microsoft Office), writing daily reports, material expediting/location, cost/progress reporting, etc .

Education

■ Bachelor degree of "Advertising"

New Bulgarian University, Sofia | 2018 - 2022

The Bachelor of Advertising has three distinct focuses: art direction, copywriting, and strategy planning/account management. There is a strong focus on critical and conceptual thinking. The degree offers a creative advertising degree that combines theoretical and industry knowledge with hands-on professional skills including copywriting, art direction and strategy planning. It provides an overview of the role and value of advertising within broader marketing and communication practice, as well as in depth study of advertising media, strategic and creative disciplines.
